LONDONERS TO PASS ON FISCAL QUESTION

Parliamentary By-Elections Next Czar's Subjects Encouraged by Sub- Point to the Panama Policy as a Refu-Week, Which British Politicians Are Watching Carefully.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—It is announced that the elections in Dulwich and Lewisham, both South London districts, to of Minister of the Interior Von Plehwe federate Veterans, the following resofill parliamentary posts made vacant by death, will take place next Tuesday. It is safe to say that no by-elections ever held in Great Britain possessed a great-Russian government, and it is regarded Washington; the President of Colomer interest to the politicians of the coun-try.

as having a parliamentary smack.

The reforms were ordered in the Senator Charles A. Culberson, sult as a pronouncement in favor of the position it has taken on the fiscal question; while, on the other hand, the defeated party will insist that local and other issues outside of tariff considerations were really the determining fac-

Naturally the fiscal question figures in the contests, but in neither case will it be a square fight on this question alone, and what the people may do next Tuesday will not be an altogether trustworthy indication of what they will do when Mr. Chamberlain's issue is thrown upon the country, and every parliamentary district asked to pass judgment upon that issue.
It may truthfully be said, however, that if the tariff reform candidates win the districts referred to, the victory will give a great impetus to Mr. Chamber-lain's cause. Nobody undertakes to predict what the outcome will be in either

AMERICAN WOMEN BETTER OFF THAN THE WOMEN OF EUROPE.

Statistics prove that there are larger What the woman needs is a vegetable numbers of women compelled to till the tonic, like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Presoil in Europe than in America. In scription, which will build up her delisoil in Europe than in America. In scription, which will build up her delicate some countries of Europe women do a large part of the agricultural work. This is thought to be degrading and showing a poor state of civilization. At offer to pay $500 reward for any case of the same time there is no doubt that if our American women could live more in the open air they would be stronger and healthier. Young girls are often crowded into poorly ventilated schools. Later in life they suffer from backache, spine-aches and headaches. They are not fitted to take up the burn of the same time there is no doubt that the carried weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure.
